Tri City Presentation
Morrow Center
October 9, 2013

The meeting was well attended with elected officials and staff members from Lake City, Morrow and Forest Park. All three mayors had previously endorsed this initiative. The next step will be to have all three cities share in the cost of UGA working us through for DCA approval of the opportunity zone

It was explained that this is a joint venture in the spirit of a synergistic approach in developing an Opportunity Zone for the Tri City Area which will bring tax credits to local employers hiring new personnel.

This will be the first step in developing a cohesive alliance amongst the three cities in their dedication to revive economic development within the Tri City region. The three cities share not only common borders, but their demographics are similar along with the excellent working relationship amongst their three City Managers.

Presentations were made by Joel Lanken, City Manager of Lake City, Jeff Eady, City Manager of Morrow, Jeff Turner, Chairman of the Clayton County Commission and Rob Gordon with the Institute of Government at the University of Georgia.

There were no votes taken as this was an information meeting only.
